STATINTL

Dear Dick:

Just a short letter to thank you for the fine work you did in writing the history of the development of the retirement policy in the Agency.

Not only was it read by many of us in this Office, but was reviewed by Colonel White who has commented, in a note to me, that he found it extremely interesting and a very important history to have.

Best wishes, and I hope that your new career is keeping you busy and happy.

Sincerely,

Signed

Harry B. Fisher
Director of Personnel

Thought you'd be interested in Colonel White's comments on this history piece.

I have retained the OP copy of the history in this office. Is that in accord with your desire?

Without question [REDACTED]
did an excellent job in writing this piece. I suggest you consider giving him some appropriate recognition.
